

The Lord's Supper. Matt. 15. 26, 27; John 6. 32, 33

J. Berridge

1. Not wor- thy, Lord, we must con - fess, That we of child - ren's bread should
2. Lord, set thy cross be - fore our eyes, With all its won - drous toil and taste, Yet, trust - ing in thy right - eous - ness, We ven - ture smart; And feast us on thy sac - ri - fice, And show our to the gos - pel feast; The bread we ask names u - pon thy heart; Till faith cry out, which comes from heav'n, O let some bles - sed crumbs be giv'n.

"I Je - sus view, I trust him now, and feel him too."