Salvation by Christ alone. Rom. 11. 6; Gal. 3. 10

J. Hart

1. How can ye hope, de - lud - ed souls, To see what none e'er saw,
 2. [There ye may toil, and weep, and fast, And vex your heart with pain;
 3. That law but makes your guilt a - bound; Sad help! and (what is worst)
 4. [This curse per - tains to those who break One pre-cept, e'er so small;

Sal - va - tion by the works ob - tained Of Si - nai's fie - ry law?
 And, when you've end - ed, find at last That all your toil was vain.]
 All souls that un - der that are found, By God him - self are cursed.
 And where's the man, in thought or deed, That has not brok - en all?]

5. Fly, then, awakened sinners, fly;
 Your case admits no stay;
 The fountain's opened now for sin;
 Come, wash your guilt away.
6. See how from Jesus' wounded side
 The water flows and blood!
 If you but touch that purple tide,
 You then have peace with God.
7. Only by faith in Jesus' wounds
 The sinner finds release;
 No other sacrifice for sin
 Will God accept but this.
