

Johann A. Freylinghausen (Halle, Germany: 1704)

♩=100 Baptism. Luke 12. 50; Rom. 6. 4; Col. 2. 12

W. Gadsby

1. Pre-cious Je-sus! here we are, Come to wit - ness and de - clare
 2. Je - sus, ere he gave his blood, Was im-mersed in Jor - dan's flood,
 3. In the wat'-ry grave we see, Look - ing through it, Lord, to - thee,
 4. And shall we for whom he died, Rose, and lives to in - ter - cede,

We are thine, re - deemed with blood, Called and proved the sons of God.
 There, and in that way, to show What he had to un - der - go.
 Je - sus, o - ver - whelmed in blood, Sunk in wrath's tre - men-dous flood.
 Be too proud to be de - spised, And with him to be bap - tized?

5. No, dear Saviour, we will go
 In the watery grave, to show
 We are buried with our King,
 And we rise his praise to sing.

6. Precious Spirit, make us see
 Love immense, beyond degree;
 Now, and when beneath the flood,
 Fill us with the love of God.