

“Let us labour ... to enter into that rest.” Heb. 4. 11

J. Hart

1. Lord, we lie be - fore thy feet; Look on all our deep dis - tress;
 2. O that clos - er we could cleave To thy bleed - ing, dy - ing breast!
 3. Make thy might - y won - ders known; Let us see thy suf - frings plain;
 4. Let us trust thee e - ver - more; E - very mom - ent on thee call,

Thy rich merc - y may we meet; Clothe us with thy right - eous - . - ness;
 Give us fir - mly to be - lieve, And to en - ter in - t - o rest;
 Let us hear thee sigh and groan, Till we sigh and groan a - . - gain;
 For new life, new will, new pow'r; Let us trust thee, Lord, fo - r all;

Stretch forth thy al - might - y hand; Hold us up, and we shall stand.
 Lord in - crease, in - crease our faith; Make us faith - ful un - to death.
 Rend, O rend the veil be - tween; O - pen wide the blood - y scene.
 May we noth - ing know be - side Je - sus, and him cru - ci - fied.
