

♩=100 Following and Praising the Lamb. Rev. 5. 9, 10 J. Hart

1. Come, ye hum-ble sin-ner-train, Souls for whom the Lamb was slain,
 2. Now look up with faith and see Him that bled for you and me,
 3. Snares and dan-gers may be - set, For we are but travel-lers yet.

Cheer-ful let us raise our voice; We have reas-on to re-joice.
 Seat-ed on his glor-ious throne, In-ter-ced-ing for his own.
 As the way, in-deed, is hard, May we keep a con-stant guard.

Let us sing, with saints in heaven, Life re-stored, and sin for-given;
 What can Christ-ians have to fear, When they view the Sa-viour there?
 Nei-ther lift-ed up with air, Nor de-ject-ed to de-spair;

Glor-y and e-ter-nal laud Be to our in-car-nate God.
 Hell is van-quished, heaven ap-peased, God is sat-is-fied and pleased.
 Al-ways keep-ing Christ in view; He will bring us safe-ly through.
