

Christ the Saviour. 1 Tim. 1. 15; Rom. 5. 12

J. Hart

1. When A - dam by trans - gres - sion fell, And con - sci - ous, fled his
 2. But lo! the Sec - ond A - dam came, The s - er - pent's sub - tle
 3. [To un - der - stand these things a - right, This grand dis - tinc - . - tion
 4. [What com - fort can a Sa - viour bring To those who - ne - ver 5. This faith - ful say - ing let us own, Well worth - y - 'tis to Mak - er's face, Linked in clan - des - tine league with hell, He head to bruise; He can - cels his mal - ic - ious claim, And should be known: Though all are sin - ners in God's sight, There felt their woe? A sin - ner is a sac - red thing; The be be - lieved, That Christ in - to the world came down, That ru - in - ed all his fu - u - ture race: The seeds of e - vil dis - a - . - points his dev - il - ish views; Ran - soms poor pri - soners are b - ut few s - o in their own. To such as these our Ho - l - y Ghost h - as made him so. New life from him we sinner - - s might b - y him be saved. Sin - ners are high in once brought in, In - creased and filled the world with sin.

 with his blood, And brings the sin - ner back to God.
 Lord was sent; They're on - ly sin - ners who re - pent.] must re - ceive, Be - fore for sin we right - ly grieve.]
 his es - teem, And sin - ners high - ly val - ue him.