

$\text{♩} = 120$ "Our sufficiency is of God." 2 Cor. 3. 5; Phil. 4. 13

1. O Lord, with shame I do con - fess My un - i - ver - sal
 2. I can - not from my i - dols part, Nor love the Lord with
 3. Since A - dam from God's im - age fell, On spirit - ual things we
 4. Then let this might - y Je - sus be, An all - suf - fic - ient emp - ti - ness, My pov - er - ty and pride; I can - not all my heart, Nor can my - self den - y; I can - not can - not dwell; The heart is turned a - side; And none can help for me, Cre - at - ing power and will; Thy grace suf - keep thee in my sight, Nor can I pray, and feel thee near, Nor can I raise to life the dead But he who

 - fic - èd saints of old; It made them think one thought a - right, Un - less thy Spir - it guide. sing with heav'n - ly cheer, Un - less the Lord be nigh.

 raised him - self in - deed, And for dead sin - ners died.
 strong and made them bold, And it suf - fic - es still.