

Brookfield, L.M.

Thomas B. Southgate

1. Man had no sor - row, knew no shame, When first he
 2. Be - hold! His Son the Fa - ther gave; The Son de -
 3. Thus Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost, U - nite to from his Mak - er came; Good, wise, and hap - py, all was scends, and dies to save! The Spir - it next to earth comes seek and save the lost; How vast the love of God to well; But Sa - tan tempt - ed, and he fell. down, The won - drous work of love to crown.

 man! How per - fect and how wise the plan!