

1. Wher-e'er I am, what-e'er I do, Can - not con - ceal - ed be,
2. The se - cret thought with - in my heart No mor - tal eye can see;
3. I can - not from His pres - ence go, Nor from His Spir - it flee;
4. If I am led to fear Thy name, To love and wor - ship Thee;

For God from His ex - al - ted throne, Does al - ways look at me.
 But, God be - holds it mov - ing there; He al - ways looks at me.
 He is Him - self in ev - ery place, And al - ways looks at me.
 Then will the words de - light af - ford; "God al - ways looks at me."
